ORDER GRANTING EXTENSION

(Issued March 29, 2004)

On March 25, 2004, the Consumer Advocate Division of the Department of Justice (Consumer Advocate) filed a request for a ten-day extension in which to file an additional statement describing the anticipated effect of a default judgment. The Consumer Advocate states it does not anticipate a further extension will be necessary and does not object to a similar extension being given to UKI Communications, Inc. (UKI). The request should be granted.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. The request for extension of time filed March 25, 2004, by the Consumer Advocate is hereby granted.
2. On or before April 12, 2004, UKI must file an appearance identifying one person upon whom the Board may serve all orders, correspondence, or other documents. The written appearance must substantially comply with 199 IAC 2.2(15). The appearance must include the docket numbers of this case as stated in the caption above. The appearance must be filed with the Executive Secretary, Utilities Board, 350 Maple Street, Des Moines, Iowa 50319. The appearance must be accompanied by a certificate of service that conforms to 199 IAC 2.2 and verifies that a copy of the document was served upon the Consumer Advocate.

3. If UKI wishes to file a response to the applications for entry of judgment by default filed in each case by the Consumer Advocate, it must do so on or before April 12, 2004.

4. A copy of this order will be delivered to the Consumer Advocate and sent by ordinary U.S. mail to UKI. In addition, a copy of this order will be sent via electronic mail to juancamilo@ukicomunications.com and to monica@ukicomunications.com.
